Ed,

We've already been through this once during our teleconference on Monday. Our reasoning and views have not changed. In fact, based on the documents that you produced, our views have been confirmed. Please, just let us know whether you have checked into the witnesses' availability to sit for a deposition. We are willing to conduct the depositions in the US or in Japan, as we said during our teleconference earlier this week.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Geoff

Dear Geoff,

Could you please advise us of the reason why you need the testimony of these non-party witnesses, Messrs. Ito, Nakagiri and Ichikawa?

Are you willing to do these depositions by teleconferencing?

If in-person deposition is needed of these non-party witnesses, are you willing to travel to an intermediate point between Chicago and Japan (preferably where you can still find a court reporter)? Their availability depends on why, when, how long, and where. They are busy, work in Japan, and are not employed by the plaintiff.

Sincerely,

Edward D. Manzo
